

Student Name:	Class Notes:
Date: Aug. 17 A Aug. 18 B	Popular Sovereignty / the idea that gov't receives its power from the people "We the people" ex.
Class: Civics	Citizens / members of a community who owe loyalty to a gov't
Today's Lesson Focus: I can explain why students study civics.	Civics / The study of the rights and duties of citizens
Assessment Date: Sept. 8th or 9th	- Since citizens give power to the gov't, they must know how gov't works
Vocabulary List: 1. Popular Sovereignty	* To have an effective gov't you need well-informed citizens
2. Citizen	↑ This is why we study civics - IF we want a great gov't, citizens need to be involved.
3. Civics
4. _____ 5. _____ 6. _____ 7. _____

Important Reminders Play Civics